WATCHING THE GAME

How many people like to watch a game of football or football Latino (soccer) or baseball or basketball or cricket or other game? Why do they like it? Some people pay a lot of money or make arrangements to attend and/or watch their favorite game. Usually everyone focuses on the ball moving everywhere. Certainly, there are some objectives, strategies and rules to be followed in the game.

Observers also know many details about the players who are in continuous training and appearing in the news. Oh, yes, the players and the details are very important to the fans.

It seems we want to know all about what we love. However, sometimes our life is filled with many more people and activities of which we know little. Why? Perhaps the latter ones are not as important to us or cannot capture our attention. Sometimes, people walking by are like shadows or objects that do not capture our attention. Do you remember the color of the pants of the taxi driver, the seller's name; the face of the doorman or the garbage collector, etc.?

Well, maybe that information is not in our priority list and that's fine.

However, usually we take for granted some people and objects that play an important role in our life and just tend to value and recognize them when they are not there anymore. Yes, yes, yes, sometimes we can be experts in a sport or activity, but ignorant in others. And yes, our priorities change as:

WATCHING THE MIND

- a) we age
- b) our needs change
- c) our mind becomes sharper or dull
- d) our hearts get full or empty of love
- e) our consciousness expands or contracts
- f) the realization of the Divine in us and others comes out or gets hidden.

As you can see, the joy we get by observing or participating in the game of life is directly proportional to our level of awareness.

This can start at:

- 1) Gross physical level: clothes, hair, objects (watches, books, camera, etc.)
- 2) External level: appearances
- 3) Subtle Level - Internal Perception: physiology (breathing, heartbeat, sounds, etc.), psychology (thoughts, emotions, etc.), others.

4) Higher Subtle level sensations: feelings, emotions, thoughts, etc.

5) Very subtle Level: metaphysics, parapsychology, alchemy, etc.

6) Essential Level: beyond words, beyond the mind.

As the layers of ignorance are removed, we experience:

a) The sense of community grows and one can feel connected or more connected to everything around us (people, animals, plants, soil, water, air, fire, etc.)

b) A growing of our feelings of gratitude towards all (God, the Sat guru, teachers, students, parents, children, friends and apparent enemies (?), pets, etc.)

c) We are grateful to all participants in this game of life (players, watchers, organizers, partners, etc.). Therefore, the small person and the big one, the atom and the Sun, the ignorant and the wise, etc., are all important and essential in this game. There is no one without the other!

d) The tendency to judge, blame and impose our selfish wants decrease. We recognize our mistakes and attribute our successes and Blessings to the Divine Grace.

e) Life is seen as a beautiful opportunity to serve.

f) We recognize our immortality.

The FP - "Fivefold Path" is composed of: Yagnya, Daana, Tapa, Karma, and Swadhyaya. These are tools (concrete and subtle) to remove these layers of ignorance or impurities to make the self (the real Self) shines.

Let us make the FP known and realize our essential unity. And yes, yes, yes, in this game of life, we can all be winners when we realize we're all on the same team and that our only enemy is the veil of ignorance. Let's practice the FP to detoxify and purify our body-mind unity and become better instruments of service.

By showing compassion and helping ourselves and others, we can open our eyes and our hearts and see that we are ONE and the SAME.

HOMA HEALING STORIES

Editha D'Lis Alvarado Luna
(Cristina's mother)
Tumbes, Peru

"Every night we had to prepare inhalations of eucalyptus to help my daughter Cristina to sleep, even though she was already taking some medicine. But after attending the International Homa Forum 2013 in Piura with many healing fires, she no longer needs medicine, and no inhalations of eucalyptus. Now we continue doing Agnihotra and taking it's ash." (Photo: Cristina is happy)

Carolina Aleman Garcia
Zorritos, Peru

"I learned Homa because of stress. And now I can sleep peacefully and the stress has decreased significantly."

HOMA HEALING STORIES

David Angel Miguel Incacari
Zorritos, Peru

"Being in Zorritos, I got a fever. I was diagnosed with malaria and I got some medicines. But then I wondered 'why do I suffer if I have my Agnihotra kit for healing?' For three days, I took Agnihotra ash, an average of 7-8 times daily, and I recovered from malaria. I completely stopped taking the other pills. Usually, the treatment of malaria lasts 15 days, but with the Agnihotra fire and the Grace of God I was able to get well quickly.

I also saw how a friend of mine, Richard Maguiña, who suffered from severe chronic migraine headaches for years, got well in two months with the practice of Homa Therapy." (Photo: Ms. Melena Jovita Ortiz and David Angel Miguel Incacari during Agnihotra at the Homa Therapy presentation in Tumbes)

Melena Jovita Ortiz
Zorritos, Peru

"I had problems with irritable bowel and the sciatic nerve. Then I became paralyzed. I could not walk. I could not do anything. I had to go to Lima (1400 km away) every 6 months to get an injection for the pain.

Then, when I started practicing Agnihotra and taking its ash 6 times/day I got cured. I do not know how it happened, but I cried with joy."

Segundo Flores
Tumbes, Peru

"Thanks to an invitation from Eng. Luis Tafur, I went to a Homa Festival in the city of Guayaquil and learned about the healing fires. For many years I had bronco-respiratory problems like asthma. Here, in this audience, several people know that I suffered with this illness. I could not eat any ice cream, or watermelon, or pineapple, etc. When someone was cleaning the house, I had to get out.

When the neighbors were burning trash in the street, I had to go somewhere else, because the bronchi automatically closed. And so, with an invitation from Eng. Luis Tafur, I went to Guayaquil and one massive Homa Therapy with many Agnihotra fires healed 80% of this malady. Then I participated in another Homa gathering and recovered fully. I have been many years healthy, thanks to the Homa fires.

I also want to share, that I found Mr. Valente (from the television) very ill with problems in the throat (tonsils), headache and bronco-respiratory problems. I sent him to Piura so he could go to any of the two hospitals (Reategui and Cayetano Heredia), where they practice Homa Therapy for free. Last night, Mr. Valente gave his testimony on TV. In one single Homa Therapy, he got 80 % well. These are testimonies that we have experienced firsthand."

HOMA FARMING - THE SOLUTION FOR THE FUTURE OF OUR PLANET!

From an interview with Mr. Sanjay Patil in December, 2013
Tapovan Homa farm

"In a Homa farm, cows are very healthy. But the main thing is that the fat content in the milk is higher. We have desi cows; we started our Goshala (stable) with 7 cows only, but now we have 32 cows and bulls in all ages.

Regarding the water, the water wells of the people around us, which they have been using for the last 10 years, are dried up. Some rich people drilled deeper and still they have not gotten water.

So this shows that in Homa atmosphere there is a better water retention.

Many officers, who pass by our Homa farm, driving from Amalner to Parola, notice that it is raining in the area of Tapovan, but 2 to 3 km further away there is no more rain. They asked me why and I told them that this is because of the Homas we do here.

This year the Jalgaon district, which has 119 villages, suffers from drought. But here in Tapovan, everything is still green and we have a good quantity of water."

Here in Tapovan Homa farm, in March 2013, we completed 12 years of doing Om Tryambakam Homa for 24 hours daily. Every day in the morning there are several Agnihotras being done and in the evenings we have approx. 20 Agnihotra fires with the participation of the workers. Because of this we have lots of benefits.

Tapovan update Oct. 2013:

"After 6 years of drought and failed monsoons, we have had the best monsoon ever here in Tapovan. All our wells are full and also our rainwater harvesting ponds. This is not normal in October. Tapovan looks very lush and green.

We harvest lots of delicious fresh fruits and vegetables from the gardens. One of our papaya trees collapsed in a recent storm under the weight of 70kg of fruit."

National Director of the Organic Consumers Association, Ronnie Cummins, on Turning the Tide Against Monsanto

October 13, 2013 by Dr. Mercola

Why Are Chemical Companies in Charge of Our Food Supply?

For a long time, Monsanto appeared to be perched on top of the world, making enormous profits and wielding near unparalleled political clout. One of the most recent examples of their political power was the insertion of the "Monsanto Protection Act" rider into the appropriation bill, back in January, which basically eliminated the power of the federal judiciary to control genetically engineered crops. As explained by Cummins:

"Under this Monsanto rider to the appropriation bill, even if a federal court rules that a genetically engineered crop has been improperly approved—that it could harm the environment or public health, they can't stop it. Monsanto's chief cheerleader in the Senate, Roy Blunt from Missouri, was very proud of this rider, and it went through.

But in a sign of change, millions of people complained, emailed and called Congress, and caused the backers of the bill to back off and say that, 'Well, it'll expire on September 30 and then it won't be part of the Farm Bill or continuing appropriations.'

Between October 18 and November 5, Washington State voters will mail in their ballots for the people's initiative 522, "The People's Right to Know Genetically Engineered Food Act." Your support is urgently needed.

SEEDFREEDOM

Sign the petition against the European Commission's "Seed Monopoly Law"

European Greens and Dr.Vandana Shiva launch a Joint Petition on Seed Legislation

Brussels, October 2 , 2013

A crucial problem in the system, is that a handful of global seed companies are monopolising the market. Three quarters of the seeds marketed and used by farmers are controlled by only a few multinational companies. European legislation has increasingly restricted access to seeds in past decades, since industrial agriculture has become the dominant model of farming. Only the seed varieties which fit this model, may be marketed in the EU. The seeds must pass intensive and expensive tests, along with tedious registration procedures and, their cultivation depends on chemicals. This legislation has dramatically reduced the diversity of seeds on the market and therefore, has become an impending threat to our food security. Please see:

EVENTS AROUND THE WORLD - SWEDEN & NORWAY

Birgitt and Horst Heigl wrote about their trip to the Northernmost settlement of Europe and at the Arctic circle:

"We did a tour to Northern Europe, which lasted several weeks. Since years, we keep visiting the north of Sweden and Norway to spread the necessary Homa vibrations also there. Practicing Agnihotra isn't partly possible there because the sun doesn't set in the summer months, and on the other hand, in winter it doesn't rise for months. This area was also particularly affected by the radioactive radiation of the Chernobyl reactor accident.

This year, for the first time, we went to the northernmost settlement in Europe. This is not the touristic North Cape, but Gamvik, a small fishing village in Norway. In a small rocky bay, protected from the strong wind, we did a Homa fire and left the ash there. Then we drove on to the easternmost town in northern Norway, Vardø, which is already in the Arctic climate zone. No trees, no bushes grow here, but the mosses, grasses and the occasional resistant flowers provide some colorful variety in between the stones. In good weather (above 22° C, a rarity there), we scattered Agnihotra ash. We did the same at the Arctic Circle in Sweden – a symbolic gift of high vibrations of the Agnihotra in the sparsely populated North. Warm greetings with love."

LEARNING ABOUT AYURVEDA WITH DR. IRMA GARCIA

PRACTICE THE FIVEFOLD PATH OF VEDAS AND YOU WILL BE READY FOR THE NEXT STAGE IN HUMAN EVOLUTION.

What counts is not what you know but what you are practicing in your daily routine.

Krishnamurti says: Better not to know if you do not practice, because you are carrying that burden all the time with you...

Yet, how can we erase the groves of the mind created by habits coming even from past incarnations?

A five years old boy sees a piano and he begins to play. Another five years old boy sees his father drinking whiskey with friends. When the father goes to the door to greet them goodbye, the boy drinks all the whiskey left over in the glasses...

The most efficient way I know, to quickly erase the groves of the mind is the daily practice of the Fivefold Path of Vedas, specially the daily performance of Agnihotra at the exact time. All five are necessary.

Agnihotra, however, cleanses our 'chitta' (The groves of the mind from where the attitudes which govern our thinking, willing and feeling spring up). When the mind is purified, Love enters. Mental tension disappears and peace comes in. This has been the experience of thousands of Agnihotra practitioners all over the world. Agnihotra effects occur at the sub-atomic level. It is resonance that purifies and heals, beyond the electromagnetic spectrum. From the normal state of matter, Agnihotra brings it to the ideal state of matter, which is Love.

The peace of mind obtained by the daily practice of Agnihotra can be measured.

Agnihotra is a super technology based on a scientific process.

If you think it is a ritual, then it is also a ritual to wash your teeth or to go to toilet...

Shree Vasant used to repeat:

"The way to peace of mind is through devotion, humility, service and selfless effort. Humility is the landmark of someone in the spiritual path. You can learn humility from a humble person, you can learn humility from an arrogant person, you can learn humility from a stone, but humility you must learn... Attitude is everything".

Thoughts are the cause. Everything else is effect, consequence.

Agnihotra is an accelerated process to purify the mind.

It is not the only way. It is a simple, practical and quick way.

A pure mind is full of love. That is, truth, generosity, empathy, compassion, humility. The result is selfless service.

Pure thoughts will result in a world where LOVE AND TRUTH WILL PREVAIL.

Patanjali said that reality in its fundamental nature is LOVE AND TRUTH and expresses itself through these two aspects.

Swami Vivekananda said that love, truth and unselfishness form our highest ideal, because in them lies such a manifestation of power.

Yet...God Almighty always respects our free will...

Dr. Irma Garcia, born in Venezuela, was the private secretary of Master Shree Vasant Paranjpe and accompanied Him in many of His travels around the world, serving as translator and assistant since 1986 till He left His body.

MESSAGES FROM SHREE VASANT

A child who is given a strong foundation will do well growing up, even in the world today. Just because we face disaster coming in various natural phenomena, this does not mean we cannot turn our thoughts and our attention to our children. Give them all love and total acceptance. This does not mean you let them do anything they want. Discipline should be firm but never harsh. Try to stay away from any physical punishment as regular form of discipline. Try to use reason in any approach towards your child. Write stories with your child, draw, play music, dance, sing. Do not think of the world coming to an end. It is not like that. Be positive and nurture your child's creativity and natural curiosity. Be full of love with your children.

Observance of truthfulness in day to day dealings is the alpha of any spiritual discipline. When we decide to don the armour of truthfulness in thought, word and deed, whatever be the consequences, we experience an inner strength. We notice that people who come near us are less inclined to tell lies. Love pervades the atmosphere and harmony sets in.

Refrain from drugs and alcohol. In the end, these are not required. For clear vision go within.

Always attune yourself to that higher force and you will be, constantly taken care of as if a hand is above you directing you to your goal.

The seeds of truth have been planted. You reap what you sow. If you are part of sowing seeds of love, that is what you will reap.

Do not try to control. IT IS IN TRYING TO CONTROL THAT WE BREED ATTACHMENT AND CREATE Karma. You are to be free. Only way you can be free is to let go. No worry. No fear. We will catch you. We have you by the neck now. All you will do is rise. Then it is all peace and bliss, love and joy, knowledge and wisdom. All this will merely come by doing service and chanting your mantra. When you chant the Mantra, Divine Power manifests.

FROM ORION TRANSMISSIONS(as received by Parvati Bizberg, Poland)*On Fukushima and Agnihotra Ash

Yes, yes. The radiation leaking from Fukushima nuclear reactor is worse than reported, though some substantial data has leaked. Effects will be seen first in cattle, then human beings. The first line of defense for those of you who have learned and are practicing Agnihotra is the pure, resilient substance, Agnihotra Ash. Prepare it ready to distribute. It will be like gold, as you have been told. *(Editor's note: Agnihotra Ash is always distributed free of charge throughout the world. There is never a cost for this healing substance).

Focus more on Agnihotra Ash and the many uses of this miraculous element in medicine, farming and healing. Do not worry. As it becomes more known, the miracles will speak for themselves. Of course, combined with healing herbs grown in Homa atmosphere, the effects will be magnified. The ash is phenomenal.

Take Agnihotra Ash internally, regularly 3 times daily now. It is the one substance which can neutralize radioactivity in atmosphere, effects on body and plant growth, and animals. Take this as seriously as you can now. These are not drills for future events; this is the 'real deal.'

The Price of Politics

Though the tendency of the masses is to align themselves with a charismatic leader, we would reiterate that politics can never lead the world out of conflict and chaos. Conflict and chaos is what politicians feed upon. They will not seek to resolve them entirely, only sufficient to establishing their own agendas. Unfortunately, even the most idealistic and fair-minded politicians have a price tag. No one is able to deflect the offers presented to them, either subtly or openly.

Safety and protection are essential for a long political career. The price for safety and protection is high and not in monetary currency! Even the greatest amongst you would fold under the intense scrutiny and veiled threats, which come as part of public office. Only those whose voices are not so known can speak the truth aloud. Therefore, we must remind you. There is power in numbers. No one being stands alone, threatened by compromise. When all speak en masse, the tide turns. It has to turn. And it will.
OM.
